Disclosure Form

Please submit Disclosures to: Johns Hopkins Technology Ventures, JHTV-Disclosures@jhu.edu

1. Overview

Type of Innovation -- the type of information to be disclosed (choose one)

☐ Invention  ☐ Creative Work  ☐ Tangible Property

Title – Please provide a short descriptive title below

Abstract - Non-Confidential summary of invention, creative work, or tangible property (3-4) sentences

Features – Identify elements of the invention, creative work, or tangible property that are novel when compared to the current state of the art

Description Detail - Detailed description of what this technology is and what it does (attach additional pages or manuscript if necessary)

References – List relevant journal citations, patents, general knowledge or other public information that you believe may be material to the patentability of your invention (i.e. closet art) attach additional pages if necessary.

2. Specifics

Biological Material -- Does this disclosure include biological material? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Was the material derived from human materials? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Can the material be traced to its human donor(s) through identifiers or some other means? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If “Yes” please provide IRB Protocol identifier: ______________________________________________________

Have the material(s) been described in a previously submitted Invention Disclosure to JHTV? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If “Yes” please provide reference number or Title: ____________________________________________________
Software -- Does this disclosure include a software element or is software implemented in the Invention?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

Software Developers – List any developers of the software.

Derivation - Explain software’s original work source and the modifications (attach additional pages if necessary)

Third party content – Identify and third party content or other elements and their source included in software (i.e. open source, freeware, etc.)

Creative Work -- Certain types of work can be claimed for copyright registration.  Most written works including computer programs are considered “Literary work.” Please make selection below.

☐ Literary Work  ☐ Performing Arts  ☐ Motion Picture/Audi Visual
☐ Visual Arts  ☐ Sound Recording  ☐ Mask Work

Year creative work was completed ________________________________

3. Encumbrance  ☐ None

Please provide funding source information related to this technology.

*Please attach a copy of each award notice.  If the PI is not included on this disclosure, JHTV will provide a copy of the completed form to the PI to comply with agency reporting obligations.

Agreement Support

Were any materials, equipment or software under a special agreement, such as material transfer agreements, purchase agreements, sponsored research agreements, or the like used?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

Does an Inventor have a consulting agreement related to the Invention?

☐ Yes  ☐ No
Was the “TET–System” or “PiggyBac Transposon System” used in the development of the Invention? ☐ Yes ☐ No
If yes, please indicate below whether TET or PiggyBac was used, and provide the: source and the name of the material(s) for each item, and attach a copy of the agreement.

5. Commercialization

Companies that may be Interested – List any proposed uses.

Resulting Product - List any products that can be produced from this invention.

Is research continuing on this invention at Johns Hopkins?
☐ Yes  ☐ No

6. Submission

Your submission is complete. Please submit Disclosures to: Johns Hopkins Technology Ventures, JHTV-Disclosures@jhu.edu, and our office will contact you to confirm receipt and to obtain any signatures through email.
